

Is it Past, Present or Future?

When you write a sentence, you must stick to the past, present or future tense.

In these sentences, the tense shifts.

For each sentence, fill in the verb tense used and write the form of the bold word that will make the verb tense consistent throughout the sentence.

Sentence	Tense	Correct Form of Verb
While we eat dinner, we talked about our day.	Present	Talk
Yesterday, I played baseball after I go to school.
My mom likes pepperoni pizza, but she also liked mushrooms.
Tomorrow, my grandma came to visit and will stay for a week.
I asked my mom to buy potato chips when she will go to the store.
Before the plane takes off, they loaded the luggage.
By the time I get off work, I was tired.
I hated to go outside when it is raining.
Will we learned about Ancient Greece when we study world history?
