This game is about us.
Pick a word from that list, darling, and I'll tell you the first memory
or thought
or wish
or fantasy
about you that comes to mind.
It may not make any sense it may not have happened yet but it will be about you and me.
Feel free to make up
your own words, too.
I will when it's my turn...

Memories

The passionate
free-association
game.
