

Every Little Thing

by Carly Pearce

Note: The second chord of each line of lyrics (i.e. C and Am) is played on the off-beat of beat two and anticipates the beat of the melody. Listen closely to recording to get the rhythm correct.

Intro: F C G Am

F C
The scent that you left on my pillow
G Am
The sound of your heart beating with mine
F C
The look in your eyes like a window
G Am
The taste of your kiss soaked in wine

F C
Every little thing
G Am
I remember every little thing
F Am7
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting
F C
Of every little thing

F C
Guess you forgot what you told me
G Am
Because you left my heart on the floor
F C
Baby, your ghost still haunts me
G Am
But I don't wanna sleep with him no more

F C
Every little thing
G Am
I remember every little thing
F Am7
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting
F C
Of every little thing

G          Am
I remember every little thing
          F                  Am7
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting
          F              C
Of every little thing

Instrumental break: Am F C G, Am F C G

                  F              C
They say time is the only healer
          G                  Am
God, I hope that isn't right
(no chord)                  D-E—D—C (play these as single note melody on 4th string)
Cause right now I'd die to not remember

F              C
Every little thing
                  G              Am
I remember every little thing
          F                  Am7
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting
          F              C
Of every little thing

                  G              Am
I remember every little thing
          F                  Am7
I'm haunted by the memories
          F              C
Of every little thing

Ending:
          F                  Am          (no chord) D-E-D-C (play single line melody)
The high, the hurt, the shine, the sting
          F              C
of every little thing