Cut this definition list out and display it prominently to help kids remember the meanings of each figure of speech.

Definitions and Examples for Figurative Language

Alliteration: Repetition of a single letter or group of letters, as in a tongue twister. She sells seashells by the seashore.

Apostrophe: Addressing someone or something that is not literally listening. Rain, rain, go away; come again another day.

Hyperbole: Exaggerating for emphasis, usually for the sake of humor. The wind is so strong, if you step outside, you’ll blow away.

Idiom: A phrase that has a different meaning than in normal context. She was so nervous that she had butterflies in her stomach.

Metaphor: Comparison of two things, which are typically not alike at all. The snow is a blanket upon the ground.

Onomatopoeia: Using a word that sounds like what it is referring to. The bees buzzed while the burgers sizzled on the grill.

Personification: Referring to something as if it was human. The sun smiled down on us.

Simile: Comparing two unlike items while using “like,” “as,” or “resembles.” Similar to a metaphor. He is as tough as nails.

Understatement: Implying more than is said. Understatement is essentially the opposite of hyperbole. Needless to say, he was in a good mood after winning the lottery.