Spring
Lewis leaves Washington D.C and heads to Philadelphia to prepare for expedition.

Fall
The Corps of Discovery expedition heads down the Ohio River.

September 7
The group records a temperature of 45 degrees below zero.

October 16
The expedition reaches the Columbia River, full of salmon.

November 4
Near Bismarck, North Dakota, the expedition group meets Sacagawea.

December 17
The expedition reaches what is now Montana where they encounter a herd of 10,000 buffalo.

December 12
Camp Wood/Camp Dubois is established on the east bank of Mississippi River upstream from St. Louis, Missouri.

July
The group reaches the Three Forks of the Missouri and Sacagawea finally recognizes where they are.

August 17
The expedition finds a Shoshone village where the chief is Sacagawea’s brother.

August 12
Lewis reaches the border between Montana and Idaho and sees only more mountains.

March 23
The expedition heads back toward home.

May 14
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

August 3
First official council between Native tribes of the West and U.S. officials just North of Omaha, Nebraska.

November 7
After seeing what he thinks is the end of land, Lewis and his group are stranded for 3 weeks due to high winds.

February 11
Sacagawea has a baby boy named Jean Baptiste.

April 29
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

October 11
Lewis discovers a grand waterfall followed by four others along the Missouri River.

April 7
Lewis and Clark send one of the boats back down river carrying goods to show Thomas Jefferson such as Indian corn and a prairie dog.

June 13
Lewis leaves Washington D.C. and heads to Pittsburgh to oversee keelboat construction.

June 13
First official council between Native tribes of the West and U.S. officials just North of Omaha, Nebraska.

February 11
Sacagawea has a baby boy named Jean Baptiste.

July 4
Lewis leaves Washington D.C and heads to Pittsburgh to oversee keelboat construction.

August 7
The group sees new animals like coyotes and antelope in South Dakota.

August 17
The expedition finds a Shoshone village where the chief is Sacagawea’s brother.

September 23
May 1
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

April 29
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

August 12
Lewis reaches the border between Montana and Idaho and sees only more mountains.

March 23
The expedition heads back toward home.

April 7
Lewis and Clark send one of the boats back down river carrying goods to show Thomas Jefferson such as Indian corn and a prairie dog.

June 13
Lewis discovers a grand waterfall followed by four others along the Missouri River.

November 7
After seeing what he thinks is the end of land, Lewis and his group are stranded for 3 weeks due to high winds.

February 11
Sacagawea has a baby boy named Jean Baptiste.

July 4
Lewis leaves Washington D.C and heads to Pittsburgh to oversee keelboat construction.

August 7
The group sees new animals like coyotes and antelope in South Dakota.

August 17
The expedition finds a Shoshone village where the chief is Sacagawea’s brother.

September 23
May 1
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

April 29
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

August 12
Lewis reaches the border between Montana and Idaho and sees only more mountains.

March 23
The expedition heads back toward home.

April 7
Lewis and Clark send one of the boats back down river carrying goods to show Thomas Jefferson such as Indian corn and a prairie dog.

June 13
Lewis discovers a grand waterfall followed by four others along the Missouri River.

February 11
Sacagawea has a baby boy named Jean Baptiste.

July 4
Lewis leaves Washington D.C and heads to Pittsburgh to oversee keelboat construction.

August 7
The group sees new animals like coyotes and antelope in South Dakota.

August 17
The expedition finds a Shoshone village where the chief is Sacagawea’s brother.

September 23
May 1
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

April 29
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

August 12
Lewis reaches the border between Montana and Idaho and sees only more mountains.

March 23
The expedition heads back toward home.

April 7
Lewis and Clark send one of the boats back down river carrying goods to show Thomas Jefferson such as Indian corn and a prairie dog.

June 13
Lewis discovers a grand waterfall followed by four others along the Missouri River.

February 11
Sacagawea has a baby boy named Jean Baptiste.

July 4
Lewis leaves Washington D.C and heads to Pittsburgh to oversee keelboat construction.

August 7
The group sees new animals like coyotes and antelope in South Dakota.

August 17
The expedition finds a Shoshone village where the chief is Sacagawea’s brother.

September 23
May 1
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

April 29
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

August 12
Lewis reaches the border between Montana and Idaho and sees only more mountains.

March 23
The expedition heads back toward home.

April 7
Lewis and Clark send one of the boats back down river carrying goods to show Thomas Jefferson such as Indian corn and a prairie dog.

June 13
Lewis discovers a grand waterfall followed by four others along the Missouri River.

February 11
Sacagawea has a baby boy named Jean Baptiste.

July 4
Lewis leaves Washington D.C and heads to Pittsburgh to oversee keelboat construction.

August 7
The group sees new animals like coyotes and antelope in South Dakota.

August 17
The expedition finds a Shoshone village where the chief is Sacagawea’s brother.

September 23
May 1
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

April 29
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

August 12
Lewis reaches the border between Montana and Idaho and sees only more mountains.

March 23
The expedition heads back toward home.

April 7
Lewis and Clark send one of the boats back down river carrying goods to show Thomas Jefferson such as Indian corn and a prairie dog.

June 13
Lewis discovers a grand waterfall followed by four others along the Missouri River.

February 11
Sacagawea has a baby boy named Jean Baptiste.

July 4
Lewis leaves Washington D.C and heads to Pittsburgh to oversee keelboat construction.

August 7
The group sees new animals like coyotes and antelope in South Dakota.

August 17
The expedition finds a Shoshone village where the chief is Sacagawea’s brother.

September 23
May 1
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

April 29
The expedition leaves Camp Wood/Camp Dubois with roughly 50 men. They travel up the Missouri River in three boats.

August 12
Lewis reaches the border between Montana and Idaho and sees only more mountains.

March 23
The expedition heads back toward home.

April 7
Lewis and Clark send one of the boats back down river carrying goods to show Thomas Jefferson such as Indian corn and a prairie dog.

June 13
Lewis discovers a grand waterfall followed by four others along the Missouri River.

February 11
Sacagawea has a baby boy named Jean Baptiste.