

Name:

Date:

Big Dreams Storyboard Activity

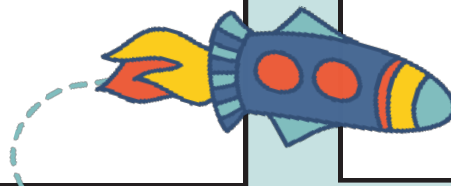

Many African Americans throughout history had big dreams. But, there were laws, rules, and other people who made those dreams feel impossible. People like Martin Luther King Jr. never stopped trying to make their dreams come true. They had help from other people and tried different ways of making their dreams a reality.

Directions: Fill each square with words or pictures that describe your answer to the prompt.

A big dream I have that feels impossible is:

Things or people in the way of making my dream real are:

People who can help make my dream real are:

What I can do to make my dream real is: