One of Jesus’ most well-known miracles happened in Matthew 14:15-21. Read the passage and fill in the blanks to discover the sequence of events that happened.

The disciples asked Jesus to send the people __________________.

Jesus said ______________. He told the disciples to give them something to ________________.

The disciples had ____________ loaves of bread and ___________ fish.

Jesus took the food, gave ___________ and __________ the bread.

The disciples gave the food to the ________________.

Everyone ________________ and was ________________.

There were _________________ basketfuls left over.

In total, _________________ men were fed, plus _______________ and