Caterpillar Counting

Help your child learn to count. You’ll need this worksheet, school glue and small, 1-inch colorful poms, which can be purchased at any craft store.

In each box, have your child glue on the number of poms required and to increase the count with each additional pom. For example, if the caterpillar has four round body sections, your preschooler should glue the poms on as she counts, “One, two, three and four.”