

Hamburger

A drawing of a hamburger loaded with toppings visually represents a paragraph. The hamburger patty, or the meat of the sandwich, holds the main idea. The garnishes represent the details in the paragraph. To use this visual aid, the students read or listen to a paragraph and write a few words describing the main idea in the hamburger patty. They would write the details on the pictures of the toppings.

