

LoveToKnow's Country Music Trivia Challenge

Easy Difficulty

1. Which country superstar had her award speech interrupted by Kanye West?
2. Which male country singer co-hosts the TV show The Voice?
3. Which artist reached the top of the charts with Ain't Nothing 'Bout You?
4. In which movie starring Sandra Bullock did Tim McGraw appear as an owner of Taco Bell franchises?
5. What was the name of Garth Brooks' rock and roll alter ego in the late '90s?
6. Which artist has an album title that refers to the "same trailer, different park?"
7. Which 1980 movie transformed Dolly Parton into a household name? (Hint: It became a Broadway musical in 2009.)
8. What was Shania Twain's best selling single?
9. Which famous Central California city is home to Merle Haggard and Buck Owens?

Medium Difficulty

1. In the 1990s, which country artist became the first to have five singles from one album reach the top of the charts?
2. Which tireless singer played the most live shows in the 2000s of any country artist?
3. What was the name of the band that backed Bill Monroe?
4. Who was the first woman to win Country Music Entertainer of Year at the Country Music Awards? (Hint: she's a "coal miner's daughter.")
5. June Carter Cash had a role in which Robert Duvall film?
6. Which country music legend wrote Patsy Cline's hit song Crazy?
7. What was the name of the style of country music that Johnny Cash helped make famous?
8. Which outspoken female country group became publicly critical of George W. Bush during his presidency?
9. About whom did Taylor Swift write the song I Knew You Were Trouble?

Hard Difficulty

1. At the 1975 CMA Awards, what did Charlie Rich do with the card that announced John Denver as the Entertainer of the Year?
2. Who won the first country Grammy?
3. What was the name of the city that built the Shania Twain Centre in her honor?
4. Who was Johnny Cash's first wife?
5. In what kind of structure was Merle Haggard born? (Hint: It was not a hospital.)
6. Which major record label signed Randy Travis in 1985 after many others turned him down?
7. Who coined the term "country music?"
8. From what kind of wood did they make the famous circle that is at the center of the Grand Ole Opry stage?
9. Sara Carter of the Carter Family used a special kind of instrument in her performances. To what family of musical instruments does that instrument belong?