Thanksgiving Words Around the Table

lovetoknow
advice women can trust

Directions: Player One writes in a Thanksgiving word, one letter per square, that includes the turkey space, then passes the game to their left. Each player adds one Thanksgiving word that connects to any previous word. See how many times you can go around the table before there are no moves left.