Speech to a Big Sister on Her Wedding Day

Hi everyone, I'm [bride's name] sister, [your name]. When [bride's name] and I were younger, I always hated being the [little] sister. I thought that [bride's name] was [bad trait, bad trait, bad trait]. I always wanted to [activity with sister], [activity with sister] and [activity with sister] -- and she always told me, "No. You are [reason why not]!" Now that I am older, I can imagine it was annoying being [bride's age] and having a [your age] year old [one of activities] -- even though I did become quite an expert at [part of activity mentioned earlier]. Now, my sister is getting married, and I still want to be just like her. I've got my own [traits] now. I just want to be as happy, or even half as happy, as she is today. There truly is no better day than when you marry your best friend -- although [groom's name] better remember that she was my best friend first! Cheers to the happy couple.
