

Candy Quiz Questions

Questions:

1. What were the four original flavors of Life Savers as introduced in 1921?
2. Who created the first, mass-produced candy bar?
3. What candy has the slogan, "It melts in your mouth, not in your hands?"
4. This candy bar was included in U.S. soldiers' rations during World War II?
5. What M&M color was discontinued in the 1970s?
6. This candy bar makes you "feel like a nut."
7. How much chocolate and candy are produced in the United States each year?
8. Why can chocolate melt in your mouth?
9. Which U.S. holiday sees the highest candy sales?
10. When is National Candy Corn Day?
11. What was the original name of the Sugar Daddy candy on a stick?
12. Which five flavors are included in a package of Bottle Caps?
13. Which famous candy was Mr. Owl talking about when he asked, "How many licks does it take to get to the center...?"
14. In which year did the makers of Bazooka bubble gum announce they would stop including Bazooka Joe comic strips in the wrappers?
15. What flavor is Good & Plenty Candy?
16. How many calories are in a single Peeps marshmallow chick?
17. What is the original tagline for Now & Later candies?
18. How did PEZ candy get its name?
19. What is the name of the gum packages that contain stickers that feature parodies of famous products?
20. As of 2014, how many official flavors are there of Jelly Belly jelly beans?

Answers

1. Grape, orange, lemon and lime.
2. John Cadbury
3. M&M's
4. Heath Bar
5. Red (because of a food coloring controversy); a safer red-colored M&M was reintroduced in 1987.
6. Almond Joy (got nuts, Mounds don't)
7. More than seven billion pounds are manufactured each year.
8. Because the melting point of cocoa butter (main ingredient in chocolate bars) is just below body temperature.
9. Halloween, followed by Easter, Christmas and Valentine's Day
10. October 30, the day before Halloween, is celebrated as National Candy Corn Day. More than 20 million pounds of candy corn are sold each year in the United States.
11. The "Papa Sucker"
12. Cola, cherry, grape, root beer, and orange
13. Tootsie Pop
14. In 2012
15. Licorice flavor with a candy shell coating
16. 28 calories
17. "Eat some now, save some for later."
18. Name comes from the first, middle, and last letters of the German word for peppermint, which is PfeffErminZ.
19. Wacky Packages
20. 50 official flavors