Don’t Take Chances with Electricity
Five key tips to stay safe!

Don’t use electrical equipment near water sources.

Never use electronic equipment with frayed power cords.

Avoid digging or gardening near underground electrical equipment.

Watch out for overhead power lines when working or playing outdoors.

Place safety caps over all unused electrical plugs.