Speech Based on a Quote

Good evening to everyone! I am [your name], [bride's name]'s sister. My sister and I have watched each other grow up and she knows me best – and my love of musicals! If you don't know me, then now you will learn a little something special – my love of singing along with the play Hamilton! In it, one of the lyrics is "I know my sister like I know my own mind, you will never find someone as trusting or as kind. I love my sister more than anything in this life, I would choose her happiness over mine every time."

[Sister's name], I've always loved this lyric and think of you every time I hear it. It is in a few songs of the play and when I first heard it, I teared up. [Sister's name], I really believe this. You are one of the best people I've ever known. I get the benefit of calling you my sister, out of every person in the world. Before making a decision, I say to myself, "What would [sister's name] think?" Of course, if I don't know the answer I would just call or text her. As everyone knows, she loves talking on the phone! Your kindness and wisdom always guides me to the right answer.

[Sister's name], I want you to know I truly would choose your happiness over mine, every time. I am so full of joy when I see you with [groom] and how happy you are with him. [Groom], she's yours now! If I could, I would have chosen you for her myself! She couldn't be happier and I can see you feel the same. Congratulations! And as they say in Hamilton, "To the groom, to the bride, from your sister, who is alway
